

I believe that cell phone number portability is important. Number portability should be first and this will lead to better service quality. Please do not let these phone companies get away from their original FCC agreement to provide portability by November 2002. Please support consumers.